INTRODUCTION

Our group has four members and our project is about the property website. So we meet and discussed about the topic in the google meet and divided our responsibility to each student as per their lacking skills in order to improve. So in order to become a well functioned webpage we obviously need html as the structure or the skeleton of the body and css as the styling and making the page looks gorgeous. And finally although we are bit noob in java script which is the most essential part of the responsive webpage, we add some features of the java script to make it more alive.

So Ayush and Subham had initiated to do the html and other mini tasks and Biswa and I worked upon the css and java scrip part. Everyday we spend at least half and hour to work upon our project during the leisure or free time and it was so much fun to do. Because this project is the bridge between theoretical and the practical which merge them together so we had lot of eagerness and curiosity to cover most of the elements, attributes, pseudo class and lot of other interesting stuffs that we had done in the class session.

Through this project we had learned so much things like:

- 1. The importance of team work and other essential soft skills like communications etc.
- 2. We realised the essence of friendship and helping each other which signifies the importance of kindness and compassion.
- 3. We knew lot of information and new stuffs from the internet through this particular project.
- 4. We learn to prioritise the things orderly. Etc and so many other things.

So in nutshell, this project had been a golden opportunity for us to utilise our basic skills and to showcase our budding talents.

So it was so much fun and entertaining to code the program.
